

19 January 1968

In lieu of the third and fourth paragraphs substitute the following:

"However, CIA use of automatic data processing equipment is inextricably involved with the security responsibilities of the Director of Central Intelligence. The National Security Act of 1947, as amended, in part provides as follows:

" . . . , That the Director of Central Intelligence shall be responsible for protecting intelligence sources and methods from unauthorized disclosure; . . . " (50 U.S.C. 401)."

"While CIA is not specifically exempted from P.L. 89-306, ^{was contemplated and} we believe that its exemption on an administrative basis ^{is} strongly supported by legislative history and the language relating to national security in Sec. 111(b)(2)."
